

CUP OF JUSTICE HOSTING FREE SEMINAR SERIES

September 21 2011 9:14 AM

Cup of Justice, a branch office for local attorney Neal Wallace, will begin a seminar series this Saturday, September 24, at the Godfrey Duke Bakery, from 11 a.m. to Noon. Complimentary coffee, donuts, and pastries will be offered.

The seminars will be conducted on a monthly basis, one Saturday each month. This Saturday, September 24, Neal Wallace will present a discussion on the topic, "Do I Really Need a Will?" There will be an open Q & A session about wills, trusts, powers of attorney, probate, and related issues.

In October, a guest presenter, Patrick G. King, of the King Law Firm, LLC, will speak about "Do's and Don'ts When Faced with a Personal Injury."

Over the next several months there will be a variety of seminar topics, ranging from worker's compensation, to small claims court, to real estate.

Cup of Justice provides 25 minute legal consultations by an attorney on a walk-in basis for $40 ($35 for seniors and students). Customers can also choose from a menu of ala carte services that have up-front, flat fee pricing. With this menu, clients can have a lawyer represent them on a limited basis rather than hiring an attorney to handle the entire case. Wills While You Wait - same day service on many documents - is also available.

Cup of Justice is open Fridays and Saturdays from 7 a.m. to 1.p.m.

Walk-ins are welcome and appointments are accepted.

For more information, call Neal Wallace at (618) 692-9967, e-mail him at:
Neal@wallacelawoffices.com , or stop by the Godfrey Duke Bakery, located at 5407 Godfrey Road, Suite C, Godfrey, IL, (next to the Round Table Restaurant)