ALTON - The dog days of summer are among us, but before we know it, children from around the region will be grabbing their backpacks and pencils and will head back to school.

Before the kids take their seats in the classroom, they and their parents will have to register and pay their fees for the upcoming school year.

Below, our readers will find a comprehensive list of the school registration schedules from schools around the Riverbend. If you have any questions about a school district's registration schedule, please contact the district offices directly.
