Among the teams LCCC has defeated so far this season are SWIC, the Missouri Baptist JV and Jefferson College.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

BELLEVILLE EAST 61, ALTON 43: Alton lost Cri'shonna Hickman to injury in the second term as the Redbirds dropped their Southwestern Conference opener to Belleville East Tuesday night on the road.

The Redbirds fell to 1-4 overall, 0-1 in the SWC; the Lancers went to 5-1 overall, 1-0 in the league.

“Tonight I was proud of the effort the girls gave in the game,” said Redbird coach Bob Rickman. “Cri'shonna getting hurt was hard to overcome; she helps us with a lot of things offensively and defensively.

“The game right wen Cri'shonna went out was hard because her teammates were worried about her. We discussed the importance of the start of the (second) half and we turned the ball over twice and missed a shot. We got some stops on defense but we could never cut the lead, but the turnovers in the third mounted and we were on our heels.”

Kenya Burnett led the Redbirds with 12 points and Deija Carter added nine; the Lancers were led by Kaylah Ramey's 14 points, with Bryce Dowell scoring 12.

GREENVILLE 58, EAST ALTON-WOOD RIVER 19: East Alton-Wood River fell to 1-5 on the year after dropping their home opener to Greenville 58-19 Tuesday night.
