THURSDAY GIRLS BASKETBALL

EAST ST. LOUIS 40, ALTON 28: Alton ran out to a quick lead on East St. Louis, but the Flyers bounced back and took control of the game to take a 40-28 Southwestern Conference win over the Redbirds in East St. Louis Thursday.

Alton fell to 1-5 overall, 0-2 in the SWC; the Flyers went to 1-2 overall, 1-0 in the league.

“We had a great first four minutes of the game,” said Redbird coach Bob Rickman. “We got to a 5-4 lead and something happened; we had a couple of mistakes, we got down on our teammates and it was a rough time until the fourth quarter.

“Winning starts with defense and it takes five people communicating and working to get it done. We struggle to get five people at the same time working at the same level. The positive to the game was the fourth quarter; they had starters in the game for almost half the quarter and we only gave up two points and scored 13. The other three quarters, we only scored 15. The defensive effort was the difference.”

Kenya Burnett led AHS with 11 points, with Allurah Bowens adding eight and Rayn Tally four. East St. Louis was led by Darriell Hicks' 13 points and nine from Rockelle Stanley.

Alton hosts O'Fallon Tuesday night and Granite City Dec. 8.

CARROLLTON 49, GREENFIELD 40: Hannah Krumweide had 16 points to lead Carrollton to a 49-40 win over Greenfield on the road Thursday.

The Hawks went to 4-0 overall, 1-0 in the Western Illinois Valley Conference.
