EDWARDSVILLE, Ill. – Sunday's match came down to the final period, and Indiana held off a pesky SIUE wrestling team 21-16.

North Dakota State defeated SIUE earlier in the day 25-13. Indiana edged North Dakota State 18-17 on tiebreaker criteria. It was the first dual matches of the season for SIUE.

"There were a lot of close matches today," said SIUE Head Coach Jeremy Spates. "The Indiana match came down to the final period. It was a fun environment for the crowd. We just wish they could have come away from the match with two wins rather than two losses."

Three SIUE wrestlers collected wins against both North Dakota State and Indiana.

John Muldoon, a 133-pounder, defeated NDSU's Albert Landeros 20-8 and Indiana's Garrett Pepple 6-1. Jake Residori, a 174-pounder, bested NDSU's Carter Nielsen 5-3 and Indiana's Devin Skatzka 8-4. At 197 pounds, Jake Tindle downed NDSU's Cordell Eaton 10-6 and Indiana's Jakob Hinz 11-10.

"He (John) was cutting down a weight class and did a good job today," said Spates. "Jake Tindle and Jake Residori are a couple of guys our fans have seen a lot of over the last couple of years. It was nice to have those guys get two wins at home."

Indiana 149-pounder Chris Perez edged SIUE's Tyshawn Williams 4-0 in the final match of the day.

Next up for the Cougars is a dual match against Illinois at the Jon Davis Center in Edwardsville. Match time Wednesday is 7 p.m.

"That should be a neat environment," said Spates. "We're looking to go out there and scrap. We just want to come some wins rather than some close losses."
