

Local students selected for Missouri Baptist University Institute for Leadership

December 5 2016 3:49 PM

Missouri Baptist UNIVERSITY

St. Louis, MO. - (December 5, 2016) - Senior Jacob Gingerich. along with sophomores Amy and Emily Schnefke, have been participating in the Institute for Leadership program at Missouri Baptist University.

The MBU Institute for Leadership is designed for students of any background or academic major who are interested in developing their leadership skills. Through this program, students will pursue the academic study of leadership as well as its practical and personal application in the community. This program also provides networking opportunities and the tools further develop each participant's professional skills. Students are selected through an application and interview process. Once selected, students participate throughout subsequent spring and fall semesters.

Missouri Baptist University is a Christ-centered university located in Saint Louis. MBU offers more than 40 undergraduate degrees, graduate degrees in education, business and religion and its new terminal degree, the Doctor of Education. In addition to its 66-acre West St. Louis County campus, MBU offers degree programs at 10 regional learning centers throughout Saint Louis, in Southern Illinois and online. For more information visit <http://www.mobap.edu>.

Edwardsville, IL

- Jacob Gingerich, senior, Marketing

Granite City, IL

- Amy Schnefke, Sophomore, Early Childhood Education
- Emily Schnefke, Sophomore, Elementary Education