

Local students named to honors lists at Missouri Baptist University for fall 2016 semester

January 24 2017 2:40 PM

ST. LOUIS - Local students have been named to the fall 2016 semester honor lists for outstanding academic performance at Missouri Baptist University.

Semester honors recognize full-time undergraduate students on the Honor Roll and Dean's List in addition to those awarded the President's Citation. The President's Citation honors qualified students who have achieved a perfect 4.00 grade point average during the semester. The Dean's List carries the names of qualified students who have achieved a grade point average of 3.75 or higher during the semester, and the Honor Roll carries the names of qualified students who have achieved a grade point average of at least 3.50 but less than 3.75 during the semester.

Missouri Baptist University is a Christ-centered university located in Saint Louis. MBU offers more than 40 undergraduate degrees, graduate degrees in education, business and religion and its new terminal degree, the Doctor of Education. In addition to its 66-acre West St. Louis County campus, MBU offers degree programs at 10 regional learning centers throughout Saint Louis, in Southern Illinois and online.
