GIRLS BASKETBALL

BELLEVILLE WEST 65, ALTON 34: Alton celebrated Senior Night at the Redbird Nest Tuesday as Ayonna Clanton scored 13 points as the Redbirds dropped a 65-34 Southwestern Conference decision to Belleville West.

AHS fell to 3-21 on the year, 0-13 in the SWC; the Maroons improved to 16-11 overall, 6-7 in the league.

“When you shoot the ball as bad as we did, have about 20 turnovers and your opponent dominates the boards, it is tough to compete,” said Redbird coach Bob Rickman. “They were able to use their size and speed to transition and dominate inside.

“I thought coming into the game we had been playing better as a team and had better ball movement, but tonight was not the team that had been competing in our last several games. Senior Night is always hard; there are a lot of emotions and everything else going on; unfortunately, it was not a memorable night for them in how we played as a team.”

Kenya Burnett had eight points for the Redbirds; Sydney Thurwalker led West with 17 points, with B'Aunce Carter adding 16 and Kwanisha Quarles 12.

Alton visits Edwardsville Thursday night in both teams' regular-season finale; Edwardsville will be in the IHSA Class 4A Collinsville Regional, while Alton will be in the Springfield Regional.
