St. John's Community Care partners with Alzheimer's Assoc. to offer presentation and consultation

COLLINSVILLE – The Alzheimer's Association is offering free consultations to discuss dementia and Alzheimer's related issues at St. John's Community Care in Collinsville. The consultation can include things like caregivers stress, diagnosis questions, resources and services, coping with behaviors and learning how to communicate with someone with dementia. Consultations are conducted by a social worker for an hour to answer your questions and address concerns.

The event will take place on Monday, May 15 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at:

St. John's Community Care
222 Goethe Avenue
Collinsville, IL 62234
