East Alton Police and Illinois Law Enforcement Alarm System (ILEAS) joined forces to resolve the standoff late Sunday night to early Monday morning. The standoff started at 10:30 p.m. Sunday and ended at 3 a.m. Monday.

"As our officers arrived and as soon after they got out of one of the cars, they observed a man taking a combat shooting stance inside the house and ran to take cover," East Alton Police Chief Darren Carlton said previously. "Several shots were then fired. Across the street, there were two houses struck by gunfire from the shooter in the house. Thankfully, there were no injuries."
