ALTON – The Liberty Bank Alton Amphitheater will host its first annual Bikes & BBQ Festival on June 24, 2017 from 1pm-6pm. The event is presented by FM News Talk 97.1 and Sauce Magazine. Radio host Dave Glover will be on hand with dozens of motorcycles on display including exotic and custom bikes. The event will feature American classic motorcycles such as Harley-Davidson and Indian as well as imports like BMW, Honda and Triumph.

“Many of the region’s best BBQ vendors will be on hand including Pappy’s Smokehouse, Boggarts, Southtown Pub and Capitalist Pig” said Robert Stephan, Amphitheater Commission Chairman. “We are pleased to be able to add another event to the Amphitheater calendar that will bring people from throughout the region to Alton” said Alton Mayor Brant Walker. Live music will play throughout from local rockers Joe Dirt and the Dirty Boyz Band.

Local BBQ vendors who are interested in participating should contact Amy Hyde at Sauce Magazine at 314.772.8004 ext 102 or ahyde@saucemagazine.com.

Admission is free. Children under 18 must be accompanied by a responsible adult.
