

ANSWER MIDWEST CONTINUES TRADITION RECEIVING 11th CONSECUTIVE NATIONAL AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE

August 22 2012 5:00 PM

Alton-based Answer Midwest, a tele-service, business services company with clients across the U.S., received their trade association's Award of Excellence for customer service for the 11th consecutive year. The Diamond-Plus Award of Excellence, from the Association of TeleServices International (ATSI), is given to the tele-service company, which for eleven years, has passed stringent testing by an independent panel of judges. The company is rated on the call handling skills of courtesy, response time, accuracy, professionalism, caller comfort, and overall service to callers.

"We are proud to continue our tradition of quality again receiving this honor. Our agents are continually trained and committed to providing the highest quality of service and responsiveness for our clients and to their customers," said Gary Tedrick, President.

Answer Midwest, Inc. is a full-service, 24/7, live-operator call-handling service accommodating the smallest to the largest size business and their customer related needs. The company provides its clients with improved customer service, response, emergency dispatching, appointment and reservation scheduling, order taking, and generally improving the overall productivity and effectiveness of their call handling. Answer Midwest can gather, encrypt, and transmit data, information and messages in any format required, as well as serving as a level-one help desk.

Answer Midwest is a family owned and privately held corporation, located in Alton since 1946. It provides tele-services to companies in a variety of fields such as: medical, property management, funeral homes, construction, transportation, education, plumbing, HVAC, government, and other service industries. Its capabilities include conducting customer surveys and providing receptionist outsourcing. “Our central location makes us available to the entire country, and the lack of a strong accent, along with the Midwest’s famous personal courtesy, draws many major companies to our services. We are proud to serve the businesses and employees of the Riverbend area as well as across this great nation,” said Gary Tedrick, President. He added, “Our only limitation is your imagination.”
