

Jeep flips in crash on Seminary and Brown in Alton

by Cory Davenport, Contributing Writer
May 15 2017 3:46 PM

ALTON - A Jeep flipped in a two-car collision around 3 p.m. Monday at Seminary and Brown in Alton.

There were four occupants in the Jeep that flipped, including two children. There was one person alone in a Mercury vehicle.

No one was injured, although Alton's Fire Department ambulance was on the scene.

A woman in the Jeep reported her wrist was impacted when the vehicle rolled on it, but further investigation by firefighters showed very minimal injuries.

