EDWARDSVILLE – Play in the Tiger Classic Youth Tennis Tournament got underway Friday at the Edwardsville High tennis complex.

The tournament is being presented by Leskera Law Firm and Scott Credit Union. Play resumes Saturday morning, with doubles play set for late Saturday afternoon and Saturday evening; the finals are set for Sunday morning.

“Scott Credit Union and Leskera Law are the presenting sponsors and they make this a fiscally positive thing as a fund raiser,” Tournament Director Dave Lipe said. “We really appreciate their support. Along with that, we really get great help from Emily Cimarolli. It was a great day for tennis, the kids got a lot of matches in today. We have a very nice field. This is a Junior Futures qualifier. We have a lot of good boys and girls players. We get great support from the USTA. John Kelly was our referee here today and doing a great job.”
