

ARTEAST Studio & Exhibits Tour

October 4 2012 8:44 AM

Alton, IL, Oct. 3, 2012... Now in its 15th year, the ARTEAST Studio & Exhibits Tour takes place Sat., Oct. 20 and Sun., Oct. 21 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. both days.

120 artists open their studios or exhibit work through 37 sites that include galleries and alternative spaces. The self-guided tour takes you from Edwardsville and Glen Carbon to Alton, Roxana and Wood River. Explore historic neighborhoods, city centers and beautiful countryside to get a glimpse into the workspace, inspiration & techniques of Madison County's artists. Artists are at their site to talk about the work or demonstrate techniques, including pottery, painting, wood carving, and metal work. "Both emerging and nationally recognized artists participate in this event," said Susan Bostwick, ARTEAST Project Director, "and there are always new artists and new venues on the tour." Art work is for sale. There is no admission fee.

ARTEAST is a program of the Jacoby Arts Center.
