GODFREY - The Great Godfrey Triathlon continues to grow and this past weekend, those involved enjoyed perfect weather, helping performances.

"It was just a beautiful day," said Kim Caughran, Godfrey Parks and Recreation director. "We think we get some of the nicest people around to participate in the triathlon. We had 71 participate this year and it has grown from 50 and 60 the first year."

The event consists of a 400-meter open water pond swim at Glazebrook Park, a 14-mile bike ride and a 5K run.
