Shelia (Granny) Curry and her son Eddie were honored at a gala black tie charity ball hosted by the 100 Black Men of Alton. The Curry's, who own and operate Granny's Uniforms Work Fashions & More, were given the President's Award in acknowledgment of their overall commitment and contribution to the area.

Granny's Uniforms Work Fashions & More addressed a need the area had for access to quality medical, light/heavy industrial, municipal and first responder work ware by opening a store featuring Dickies brand clothing.

Granny's Uniforms Work Fashions & More is located at 2525 College Ave in Alton and is open Tuesday through Friday 10am to 6pm and Saturday 10am to 4pm.
