ALTON - Greater Alton Concert Association welcomes "Two on Tap" on Sunday, October 8 at 3:00 pm.

This exciting program featuring the singing and tapping talents of musical theater performers Melissa Giattino and Ron Destefano will take to the stage of Hatheway Cultural Center at Lewis & Clark Community College in Godfrey.

With music from the golden days of song-and-dance their flair breathes new life into classics such as “42nd Street”, and “I Got Rhythm”. With vocal talents as polished as their dance, the audience is in for a treat with “Love Letters” and “You’ll Never Walk Alone”.

To help promote their mission to breathe new life into classic song-and-dance with clever arrangements, a meaningful connection to the audience, and signature high-energy routines they also find time to include young dancers from the towns in which they perform. At this concert they will feature dancers from Jennifer Bishop School of Dance in Alton and DanceWorks Studio in Jerseyville. The students are working ahead to prepare a routine and will meet with Melissa and Ron to polish and perfect the number.
