

District Seven recognizes students with Do The Right Thing Award

by Steven Spencer, Staff Writer
October 11 2017 2:06 PM

EDWARDSVILLE - Tons of proud parents filled Woodland Elementary Tuesday night as Assistant Superintendent Dr. Nancy Spina announced the student recipients of the Do the Right Thing Award at the District Seven school board meeting.

"District Seven is an outstanding school district because of families like yours," Spina said to the students. "Tonight I have the privilege and honor to stand here and recognize many of our students who do the right thing, even when no one is looking."

The board also recognized the student's parents for helping to instill what is right in today's kids.

"We're always very pleased have student's and their families attend meetings and recognize them for the quality student's they are and the wonderful things they bring to the district," Superintendent Dr. Lynda Andre said. "It's always a good night when we have kids and their families here."

Each student recognized was nominated by a teacher, his/her principal or another staff member because of an act of kindness that was observed somewhere in school. The program regularly recognizes students who emphasize good judgment in a variety of situations.

Students recognized:

Goshen Elementary: Madison McLeland, Mason McLeland, Reagan Farris and Kenley Stowe

Hamel Elementary: Gavin LaCuesta, Jessica Sever and Aubrey Hines

Worden Elementary: Kendra Englar, Caden Hamilton and Laura Gusewelle

Glen Carbon Elementary: Hayden Hoelscher, Kei Blake and Kennedy Downs

Nelson Elementary: Max Maloney, Ester Steele, Allison Huang

Leclaire Elementary: Nolan McKinney, Bowen Volling and Marleena Anderson

Midway Elementary: Marek Neese, Parker Curry and Sean Ogden

Woodland Elementary: Knox Verbais, Darwin Chimaren and Paris Appleby

Cassens Elementary: Brooklyn Elliot, Sally Schapman, Shreyas Medikonda and Zack Kennett

Columbus Elementary: Gwen Harkey, Chase Wulfing and Mariae Jone

Liberty Middle School: Alayna Ahlers, Vyla Hupp, Paige Bryne and Rebecca Thomas

Lincoln Middle School: Grace Kirkpatrick, Emma Patrick, Rachel Heflin, George Windaue and Blake Freitag

Edwardsville High School: James Scott, Landon Vuagniaux, Emily Leanne Anderson, Destiny Hope, Tyrone Jones and Brittany Jett