GODFREY - The Village of Godfrey and Godfrey Parks and Recreation will be hosting their 13th annual Snowflake Festival from 6 to 8 tonight at Glazebrook Park.

Families will have a chance to meet Santa, sip on hot chocolate, roast chestnuts and enjoy carriage rides in celebration of the holiday season.

The event is free but guests are encouraged to bring a non-perishable food donation for the Crisis Food Center.

The Village of Godfrey will be also be hosting Breakfast with Santa at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday, December 9, at the KC Hall on Stamper Lane.

Children will have the chance to visit with Santa, enjoy live music, balloon animals, a magician and breakfast catered by the KC Men's Group.

Santa will arrived at 8:45 a.m. with breakfast served at 10 a.m.

Advanced registration is required and due by Wednesday, December 6. Children five and under are free, children six to 12 are $5 and those 13 and older are $10.
