NEW YORK - Forty-seven new car dealers out of more than 16,500 nationwide have been nominated for the 2018 TIME Dealer of the Year award, which is now in its 49th year.

One of the nominees for the prestigious honor is Sam Roberts of Roberts Motors, Inc., of Alton.

Sam has been a business and community fixture in the Riverbend area for many years.

Nominees, finalists and the national Dealer of the Year will be celebrated at the formal opening of the convention, which is expected to draw more than 20,000 individuals involved in the automobile industry. The announcement of this year's nominees was made by Meredith Long, senior vice president and general manager, News, Luxury & Style, TIME, and Tim Russi, president of auto finance for Ally Financial.

The TIME Dealer of the Year award is one of the automobile industry's most highly coveted honors. Recipients are among the nation's most successful auto dealers who also demonstrate a long-standing commitment to community service.

The award is sponsored by TIME in association with Ally Financial, and in cooperation with NADA.

John Roberts said he is proud of his dad for the recognition and said he looks forward to going to Las Vegas to enjoy his dad's honor.

"We will be in Las Vegas March 23 for the awards show," John Roberts said. "To be one of 47 of 16,500 dealers involved is a big thing, I think. My dad has never been one to toot his own horn. There are a lot of things he is involved in and has done in the community that nobody knows. He is very passionate about the business and the community. He really doesn't want to be recognized when he does things above and beyond."

John Roberts said his father was out of the country when this news came in about his TIME recognition and said he knows he will be surprised to hear about it.

Sam Roberts attended Southern Illinois University after graduating from Marquette Catholic High School. Sam is a strong supporter of veterans and served in the Marine Corps for 30 years. Sam started his career in the car business in 1964. In 1967, Sam and Bill Roberts acquired a Ford franchise in 1967, and eventually Sam became the sole owner.

John Roberts, Sam's son, is the present general manager of Roberts Motors. Sam Roberts Jr., his late son, also was part of the dealership management until he died in 2014.

Sam and his wife, Sharon, have four children and six grandchildren.
