

Edwardsville School District 7 cancels classes for Thursday because of cold weather prediction

by Dan Brannan, Content Director
January 3 2018 3:51 PM

EDWARDSVILLE - Edwardsville School District 7 has cancelled school and all school wide activities for Thursday, Jan. 4, 2018, because of an extreme cold weather forecast.

This is a message from Lynda Andre, Superintendent of Schools:

"After monitoring the weather and studying the forecast, which indicates temperatures with wind chills as low as -15 for Thursday morning, classes at all District 7 schools are cancelled for Thursday, January 4, 2018. All school-wide activities are cancelled."

Kids Zone Service at Woodland Elementary will be opened for those enrolled for this week.