Ashleigh McElroy of My True Love Gave to Me is the Artist of Month at Lost Arts & Antiques for March. Please join her at Lost Arts (254 N Main Street, Edwardsville) for her Artist Reception on March 8th from 6 to 8 pm. This open house event is a free family friendly event. Enjoy Ashleigh's artwork and homemade cupcakes, while perusing the work of dozens of other local artists. Attendees will also have the chance to enter a drawing for one of Ashleigh's original works and receive a discount on custom orders!

Prospective art enthusiasts and gift givers can order custom portraits in charcoal, chalk pastel, oil paint, paper silhouettes and ready-made prints and original pieces through her Etsy shop online or at Lost Arts & Antiques in the historic Wildey Theatre in downtown Edwardsville. Customers can also find examples of her beautiful work at mytruelovegifts.com, which is currently being renovated by her husband David.

So she was considering, in her own mind (as well as she could, for the hot day made her feel very sleepy and stupid), whether the pleasure of making a daisy-chain would be worth the trouble of getting up and picking the daisies, when suddenly a White Rabbit with pink eyes ran close by her.

There was nothing so very remarkable in that, nor did Alice think it so very much out of the way to hear the Rabbit say to itself "Oh dear! Oh dear! I shall be too late!" (when she thought it over afterwards, it occurred to her that she ought to have wondered at this, but at the time it all seemed quite natural); but, when the Rabbit actually took a watch out of its waistcoat-pocket, and looked at it, and then hurried on,

Alice started to her feet, for it flashed across her mind that she had never before seen a rabbit with either a waistcoat-pocket, or a watch to take out of it, and burning with curiosity, she ran across the field after it, and was just in time to see it pop down a large rabbit-hole under the hedge.
