

Honor students named at Baylor University

June 7 2018 11:50 AM

WACO, TEXAS - More than 4,000 Baylor University students were named to the Dean's Academic Honor List for the 2018 spring semester. Students honored on the Dean's List are Baylor undergraduates with a minimum grade-point average of 3.7 while enrolled in a minimum of 12 semester hours.

The oldest continuously operating university in Texas, Baylor University is a private Christian university and a nationally ranked research institution, with a mission to educate students for worldwide leadership and service by integrating academic excellence and Christian commitment in a caring community.

Nestled along the banks of the Brazos River in Waco, Texas, Baylor provides numerous educational and research opportunities across various disciplines through 142 undergraduate, 75 master's and 42 doctoral programs, a juris doctor and education specialist programs. Baylor students interact with outstanding full-time faculty from their first days on campus, with a student-to-faculty ratio of 15 to 1. The University's vibrant campus life also includes more than 300 clubs and organizations and varsity athletics competing in the Big 12 Conference.

Austin William Pizzini, of Edwardsville, School of Engineering and Computer Science, was named to the dean's list this spring.