ALTON – When The Daily Meal, the "All Things Food and Drink" website, named the 50 Best B&Bs in America state by state - The BEALL MANSION was recognized Best of Illinois.

According to The Daily Meal editor, Syjil Ashraf, "Americans love their bed and breakfast inns. With about 17,000 bed and breakfasts in the country, travelers seeking a small retreat and a good meal when they wake up have a plethora of options. However, not all B&Bs are created equal. When it comes to travel, we believe in booking the best of the best. There are bed and breakfasts in every state, and we've gathered up a list of the best in each one of them."

Ashraf continued, "Breakfast options at The Beall Mansion are truly impressive. In addition to a self-serve continental breakfast in the butler's pantry, guests can also opt for a gourmet breakfast in the mansion's formal dining room, in their own room, or even in bed! . . . All rooms feature feathered beds, fireplaces, and Jacuzzis , and with a complimentary 24-hour hot beverage service and in-room spa and massage treatments, you're sure to feel utterly spoiled."

The mansion was originally built in 1903 as a wedding gift by railroad baron and shipping boat magnate Z. B. Job - for his son and his future daughter-in-law, Mary Drummond of the Drummond Tobacco fortune. Five years later Mary had her husband declared insane and committed to a Michigan asylum. The following year, 1909, she sold the property to politician and industrialist, Edmond Beall. It has been known as The Beall Mansion ever since.

Jim and Sandy Belote purchased the mansion In 1996. Two years later they opened it to the public as an upscale bed and breakfast inn, museum, and wedding venue.

The Belotes commented, "we would like to thank the tens of thousands of guests from around the world, dedicated staff, and the entire community that have made this all possible. We will be eternally grateful."
