

TheBANK of Edwardsville issues fraud warning

by Dan Brannan, Content Director
September 13 2018 8:18 PM

EDWARDSVILLE - TheBANK of Edwardsville has issued a warning about a phishing attempt that has been reported. "Someone is trying to acquire account information via fraudulent text messages while claiming to be a local credit union in our area. Do not call this number. Delete the text," the bank said in a release.

The bank also said TheBANK of Edwardsville will never solicit customer information from anyone via text, phone call or e-mail.