SOUTHWESTERN CROSS COUNTRY

WOOD RIVER CROSS COUNTRY INVITATIONAL

Southwestern head coach Gary Bowker said on Saturday, October 6th, Southwestern's Cross Country team took part in the Wood River Cross Country Invitational. Eight races, divided by class, were contested. The top 15 finishers received plaques.

Bowker said the race of the day was run and won by Caden Bohn.

"Caden started out strong, took over the lead, and cruised around the winding Belk Park course in a sizzling time of 16:37, securing a first place plaque as he outran a field of 31 runners," Bowker said.

In the first race of the morning, all freshmen took to the starting line. For the Lady Birds, Laina Wilderman captured a plaque by placing 6th in a field of 23. Laina's time on the 3.0 mile course was 21:40, her personal best for the season.

In the freshman boys race, Sam Edwards finished 18th in a field of 32. His time was 20:18. There were no Southwestern entrants in the sophomore races.

In the junior class races, Allison Brown turned in her best performance of the year, securing a 9th place plaque in a field of 30, with an outstanding time of 21:51. Mackenzie Conlee (25:18) placed 20th, while Andrea Gwillim, (27:57) placed 25th.

Emma Brandon came in 27th with a clocking of 29:18. For the boys, junior Derek Watson crossed the finish line at 18:54, good enough for 17th place in a field of 40 runners.

In the senior race, Sabrina Burns won a 7th place plaque by completing her run in 24:35, a PR.
