EDWARDSVILLE -Gori Julian & Associates, P.C. is proud to announce that partner Sara Salger and attorney Christopher T. Layloff have recently been named Illinois Emerging Lawyers. Law Bulletin Media has compiled this list of outstanding lawyers based on surveys that are mailed to all Leading Lawyers in the state.

Sara Salger was named as an Emerging Lawyer by her peers. Working at Gori Julian & Associates since the firm's inception, Salger is licensed to practice law in Illinois and Missouri. She is involved in her community, serving on the board and involved in numerous local charities and groups and volunteers her time regularly and speaks to local high school law classes. She was most recently recognized as one of the National Trial Lawyers "Top 40 Under 40" for the fourth consecutive year.

Christopher T. Layloff was named as an Emerging Lawyer based on recommendations from other practicing attorneys. Only those attorneys most often recommended and later approved by the advisory board are selected. Layloff is a member of multiple national and local bar associations, has co-authored many published works, and speaks on legal issues to unions, retirees, and other lawyers. He is driven to help those who are hurt or injured. A Granite City, IL native, Layloff still lives in Madison County with his wife and daughter.

Less than two percent of all lawyers licensed in Illinois under the age of 40 are recognized as Emerging Lawyers. Learn more at the website <http://www.leadinglawyers.com/meth.cfm>.

About Gori Julian & Associates
