NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE

DETROIT 4, ST. LOUIS 3: The Blues rallied from a 3-0 deficit, but a goal by Tyler Bertuzzi at 13:07 of the third period gave the Red Wings the win at Little Caesar's Arena.

It was the fifth loss in six starts for St. Louis, who are now 8-12-3 on the season.

Thomas Vanek, Andreas Athanasiou and Bertuzzi all scored in the second period before David Perron and Vladimir Tarasenko both scored on the power play to cut Detroit's lead to 3-2.

Perron's second goal of the game tied it up at 3-3 before Bertuzzi scored his second to give the win to the Wings.

Jake Allen had 27 saves for the Blues, while Jimmy Howard had 33 for Detroit. St. Louis outshot the Red Wings 15-1 late in the third, but couldn't find the back of the net.

The Blues' road trip continues on Friday at Colorado and ends Saturday at Arizona. St. Louis returns home to face Edmonton on Dec. 5.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER

STADIUM PROPOSAL CLEARS MAJOR STEP: A proposal for new soccer stadium for St. Louis cleared a major hurdle on Wednesday when the Housing, Urban Development and Zoning committee of the St. Louis Board of Aldermen voted 8-0 to endorse a resolution supporting the stadium proposal.

The resolution now goes to the full Board, which could vote on it as early as Friday.

The resolution contains tax incentives already agreed upon by the team's ownership group and the City of St. Louis. The construction of the stadium will be fully financed by the Taylor family of Enterprise Leasing and Jim Kavanaugh, president of World Wide Technologies, Inc.

The ownership group is competing for a MLS expansion franchise that would begin play in the 2022 season. Kavanaugh is the president and CEO of the area's current pro soccer team, Saint Louis Football Club, who play in the United Soccer League Championship.
