EDWARDSVILLE - The Edwardsville Breakers YMCA swimmers had top performances in both the MLK Meet this past weekend and the recent Sprint Spectacular Meet at Chuck Fruit Aquatic Center.

Edwardsville YMCA Breakers head coach Bob Rettle is excited once again about his powerhouse team, shown in both the MLK and Sprint Spectacular meets.

“This was the 12th time for the Sprint Spectacular,” Coach Rettle said. “We had the meet the first seven or eight years at Esic (now Niebur) YMCA Pool. I am excited about the season; we have a great group of kids.”

Coach Rettle said the Edwardsville YMCA instituted a program that all parents who volunteer have to go through before they work meets and all the Breakers’ parents conformed to the requirements.

“All our parents working the meets have passed all the requirements,” he said. “We have always been safety minded and the Edwardsville YMCA takes the new Safe Sports Act very seriously. We are safety first in protecting the kids and that enhances everything we do.”
