

Edwardsville School District 7 announces final three superintendent candidates

by Dan Brannan, Content Director
February 4 2019 12:50 PM

EDWARDSVILLE - The District 7 Board of Education announced today its final three candidates in the search for the District's next Superintendent. President Monica Laurent named the following candidates as finalists:

Dr. Dennis Cramsey

Mr. Jason Henderson

Dr. Tanya Patton

Leading up to final interviews on February 12, 2019, the Board will host each of the three candidates for District site visits over the next week. The final interview on the 12th will include representation from the Board of Education, faculty, staff, and community.