ALTON – The final call for YWCA Women of Distinction nominations and Josephine Marley Beckwith Future Leaders Scholarship applications is here.

From our mothers to our daughters, our sisters, neighbors, and friends, there are so many women in our community who serve as leaders in their families, workplaces, schools, and towns. As part of our commitment to empowering women and girls, YWCA of Alton celebrates and honors these women and female student leaders annually at the Women of Distinction event. The women honored at this event represent a diversity of women's interests, talents, and achievements and support the mission of the YWCA: eliminating racism, empowering women, and promoting peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all.

Since 1991, more than 280 Women of Distinction honorees have been celebrated for their outstanding accomplishments and contributions in our community, and hundreds of their supporters attend the Women of Distinction event to show their appreciation for these phenomenal women. This year's Women of Distinction event will be held on Thursday, May 9, 2019, at The Commons on the Lewis & Clark Community College Campus in Godfrey.
