

Episcopal Parish of Alton's Shrove Tuesday Pancake and Sausage Supper is Set

by Thomas Wrausmann
March 2 2019 6:43 AM

ALTON - Area residents who like their breakfast in the evening might want to check out the Episcopal Parish of Alton's Shrove Tuesday Pancake and Sausage Supper.

The dinner is from 5 to 7 PM at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, 10 S. Third Street in downtown Alton. It is sponsored by the parish's Episcopal Church Men organization. A free-will offering can be made with the proceeds going to the Crisis Food Center in Alton, ECM representatives said. Coffee, iced tea, hot tea, juice, and milk will also be served.

The ECM supper is part of a series of Lenten events at the parish. An Ash Wednesday Mass will be held at 7 PM Wednesday, March 6 at St. Paul's. For several weeks, Lenten services will be held followed by a light meal, usually soup, cheese, and bread, from March 13 to April 10.

Services will be at 6 at St. Paul's followed by dinner at 6:30 PM, parish representatives said. Featured are a series of videos by Adam Hamilton called "Simon Peter: Flawed but Faithful Disciple." The March 13 event will be sponsored by the Episcopal Church Women organization. The March 20 event will be hosted by the Guild of Grace; March 27, ECM; April 3, the parish's Trinity Chapel and April 10 by the parish Vestry. For more information, contact the church office at 465-9149