TUESDAY, MARCH 26 SPORTS ROUNDUP

BASEBALL

MARQUETTE CATHOLIC 2, NOKOMIS 0: Single runs in the second and fifth innings were all Marquette needed, as Jack Warren scattered six hits and fanned four on his way to a complete game win for the Explorers on the road.

Braden Coles and Carter Hendricks had the RBIs for Marquette on the day.

The Explorers are now 6-3 on the season.

BREESE MATER DEI CATHOLIC 10, ROXANA 0: Brock Timmerman led the way for Mater Dei with three hits and two RBIs, while Drew Dent and Parker Johnson each had an RBI as the Knights defeated Roxana at GCS Ballpark in Sauget.

Jacob Acker had the only hit of the day for the Shells, as Timmerman fanned five in the complete game win for Mater Dei. Weston Renaud also had five strikeouts for Roxana.

The Knights are now 6-3 on the season, while the Shells drop to 3-4.

GRANITE CITY 6, HAZELWOOD WEST 0: Jonas Barnes went three-for-four with two RBIs, and Freddy Edwards went two-for-four as Granite shut out Hazelwood West at home.

Cole Bartling scattered four hits and struck out four en route to the complete game win.

The Warriors are now 4-5, while the Wildcats fall to 2-4.

RED BUD 11, METRO-EAST LUTHERAN 9: Metro-East rallied in the bottom of the seventh, coming up with three runs to make it close, but Red Bud held off the Knights to get the win at Martin Luther Field.

Erik Broekemeier went four-for-four with an RBI, and both Jonah Wilson and Brendan Steinmeyer had two hits for Metro-East, while Nolan Gutjahr was two-for-five with three RBIs.

Broekemeier had five strikeouts pitching for the Knights.

NEW ATHENS 3, VALMEYER 2: At Whitey Herzog Field, a sixth-inning run proved to be the difference as New Athens edged Valmeyer.

Jacob Rowold and Logan Seidler were both two-for-three for the Pirates, while Sam Fitzwilliam and Riley McCarthy had the RBIs.

Jake Poirot and George Schneider were each two-for-three, while Levi Daab had two RBIs for the Yellowjackets.

Phillip Reinhardt struck out five for Valmeyer, while Joe Range struck out six in going all the way for New Athens.

The Yellowjackets are now 1-5, while the Pirates fall to 5-5.

HARDIN CALHOUN 19, PLEASANT HILL 0: A 12-run first inning was all that Calhoun needed as the Warriors won at Pleasant Hill.

Grant Gilman was one-for-one, a homer and five RBIs on the day for Calhoun, while Drew Baalman was three-for-five with an RBI, Luke Wickenhauser went three-for-four with two RBIs, and Trenton Buchanan, Colby Clark and Jonny Laing each had two RBIs for the Warriors.

Wickenhauser allowed only one hit and struck out nine in getting the win for Calhoun, who improve to 3-4 on the year.

CIVIC MEMORIAL 6, PIASA SOUTHWESTERN 2: Keaton Loewen's three hits and three RBIs, along with Chandler Powell's two hits and RBI, helped CM go on to the win at Southwestern.

Trever Seets had two hits and a RBI for the Piasa Birds, while Ryne Hanslow had the other RBI.

Eli Smock allowed five hits and fanned seven to get the win for the Eagles, while Kyler Seyfried struck out five for Southwestern.

CM is now 4-3, while the Birds drop to 1-5.

GIRLS SOCCER

FATHER MCGIVNEY CATHOLIC 2, ROXANA 2: Macy Hoppes' brace (two goals) was canceled out by strikes from Macie Lucas and Olivia Mouser as McGivney and Roxana battled to a draw at Roxana.

Katelyn Walker had 14 saves for the Griffins, while Bella Scheibe made three stops for the Shells.

McGivney is now 3-4-2 on the year, while Roxana is now 2-4-1.

BREESE CENTRAL 8, METRO-EAST LUTHERAN 0: Ocean Reinhardt had a hat trick and Madelyn Santel had a brace (two goals) to help lead Central past Metro-East at home.

Madison Ashford didn't make a save as she got the clean sheet for the Cougars.

Central goes to 4-0-0, while the Knights are now 0-5-0.

EDWARDSVILLE 1, BELLEVILLE EAST 0: Sarah Krause's strike was the only goal of the game as Edwardsville won on the road in a key Southwestern Conference matchup.

Rachel Hensley had five saves in getting the clean sheet for the Tigers.

Edwardsville is now 5-4-0 on the season, while the Lancers fall to 4-3-0.

O'FALLON 1, ALTON 0: Aubrey Mister had the game's only goal in the first half as O'Fallon shut out Alton at home.

Sarah Cooley and Grace Vincent each had six saves in sharing the clean sheet.

The Panthers are now 6-1-0, while the Redbirds fall to 4-2-0.

COLLINSVILLE 2, BELLEVILLE WEST 1: Destiny Johnson and Faith Liljegren both had the goals for Collinsville in their win at Belleville West.

Claire Rendelman had 10 saves in recording the win for the Kahoks.

Collinsville goes to 3-2-0, while the Maroons are now 1-6-1.
