BASEBALL

TRIAD 7, JERSEY 2: A four-run third inning helped make the difference as Triad defeated Jersey at home in a Mississippi Valley Conference tilt.

Nolan McGowen, Joe Wade and Matt Weis each had two hits for the Knights, with Weis driving home a pair of runs, and Wade, Ethan Gratton, Hunter Boyd and Zach Torin having an RBI each.

John Collins and Zeke Waltz each had two hits and an RBI for the Panthers.

Drew Straub allowed four hits and fanned four to get the win for Triad.

The Knights are now 6-7, while Jersey drops to 7-6.

ROXANA 12, HARDIN CALHOUN 8: Roxana scored five times in the second, and four more times in the fifth to defeat Calhoun at Roxana City Park.

Kaleb Hinkle-Pruitt and Connor House both had three hits and three RBIs for the Shells, while Gavin Huffman also had three hits and drove in two runs.

Cory Baalman, Drew Baalman and Luke Wickenhauser each had two hits for the Warriors, while Grant Gilman drove in a pair of runs.

Johnny Laing fanned six on the day for Calhoun, while Christian Floyd allowed four hits and struck out two to get the win for Roxana.

The Shells are now 6-6, while the Warriors are now 7-8.

ST. LOUIS PATRIOTS 10, GRANITE CITY 9: The St. Louis Patriots, a team of home-schooled students in the St. Louis area, scored five in the fifth and had to hold off a seventh inning rally to take the win over Granite.

Cole Bartling had three hits and two RBIs to lead the Warriors, while Brennan Haddix, Cameron Hibbets and Bennett Smallie each had two hits.

David Olejnik had three hits for the Patriots, while Olejnik, Zach Gunn and Jonah Purvis all had two RBIs.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL

NATIONAL LEAGUE

ST. LOUIS 4, L.A. DODGERS 0: Paul DeJong went two-for-two, Yadier Molina had two RBIs and Paul Goldschmidt cracked his sixth homer of the season as the St. Louis Cardinals shut out the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-0 Tuesday night at Busch Stadium.

Molina had two doubles in the first three innings; the first a ground-rule double that scored DeJong in the first, and another double down the left field line that scored Goldschmidt and DeJong to give the Cardinals a 3-0 lead.

Goldschmidt's homer was a solo shot to left in the fifth to give St. Louis its winning margin.

Dakota Hudson pitched well, allowing six hits and striking out four in four-and-two-thirds innings, just one out short of qualifying for the win. That went to John Brebbia, who fanned three in an inning-and-a-third.

Ross Stripling took the loss for Los Angeles, striking out seven in five innings of work. The Dodgers got two hits each from Cody Bellinger and Enrique Hernandez.

The Cardinals improve to 6-5, and will take on Los Angeles again in the third game of a four-game series Wednesday night, with first pitch coming at 6:45 p.m.
