

Macoupin Sheriff Shops Local

September 13 2013 2:36 PM

For many years the County's Sheriff's Department has been forced to purchase its uniforms from outside Macoupin; that recently changed when SPL Outfitters a branch of Safety Partners Ltd. opened its doors in Staunton on February 8. The new uniforms will offer officers great quality with a made to order custom fit. Sheriff Don Albrecht worked with Safety Partners to perfect the new designs. The department will order some 200 uniforms on a as needed basis.

"We received excellent personal service. I like that I was able to review before purchasing," said Sheriff Albrecht. "I am happy with their work. We like to shop local whenever we can and if we receive a bargain in the process, even better. It's a win-win for all involved."

Police uniforms are just one of the many items Safety Partners Ltd. offers. The company has redesigned menus, logos and uniforms for a local restaurant, along with offering wildfire clothing (helmets, gloves, etc.) for fire departments. President CEO Owner Dave Volentine said it best.

"We offer pants for construction workers on site to cargo shorts for poolside."
