

“WHAT’S UP DOWNTOWN” information exchange to be held Tuesday, May 7th

May 7 2019 8:58 AM

(Alton, IL – 6 May 2019) Alton Main Street’s quarterly information exchange, called “What’s Up Downtown”, will be held on Tuesday, May 7th at 5:30 p.m. at Jacoby Arts Center, located at 627 E. Broadway in Alton, IL.

The public is invited to learn the latest news regarding developments in Alton's historic downtown district, including updates from new & existing businesses, news on real estate transactions and details of upcoming events and projects presented by Alton Main Street.

The evening's featured speakers will be:

- Jayne and John Simmons, who will share a video that highlights some big ideas on transforming the City of Alton into the "Healthiest and Happiest City on the Mississippi River" by 2029. They will take questions and share next steps.

- Steve Goetten, Assistant Vice President of First Mid Bank & Trust which will soon be opening a Downtown Alton branch in the Millers Mutual building.

“What's Up Downtown” is a casual open forum where the community will be brought up to date by Alton Main Street, business and property owners, City officials, the Rivers and Routes Tourism Bureau and other stakeholders. Attendees will also enjoy complimentary refreshments and the opportunity to network with other downtown enthusiasts.

If you would like to get involved with the many ways that Alton Main Street volunteers are working to promote the district and improve the quality of life in our community, please contact Executive Director, Sara McGibany, at 463-1016 or email sara@altonmainstreet.org.
