Rock and Roll Hall of Famer Steve Miller's hits include "The Joker," "Take the Money and Run," "Rock'n Me," "Fly Like an Eagle," "Jet Airliner," and "Jungle Love." Miller has sold tens of millions of records and his music has been streamed well over 2 billion times.

It was Miller's 1973 album "The Joker," that made him a superstar. That album reached No. 2 on the charts and was the first of three consecutive Top 20 albums for Miller. Over his 55 year career, Miller has released 18 studio albums, six live discs and eight compilations, 10 of which went gold or platinum and charted Top 40. His most recent studio disc was 2011's "Let Your Hair Down."

Five time Grammy Award winning country singer Marty Stuart and His Fabulous Superlatives includes musicians Marty Stuart, Kenny Vaughan, Harry Stinson and Chris Scruggs. Steve Miller has described the group as "one of the best singing and playing bands EVER and not to be missed." Stuart has had nearly 20 Top 40 singles in a recording career of more than 40 years. He is best known for his breakthrough hit "Arlene" in 1985.

"I know this is going to be one of the best musical pairings we've ever done and an amazing evening of great American music," Steve Miller said. Stuart echos those thoughts saying, "Steve Miller is a treasure and a true world-class musical citizen. I so respect him as a singer, a songwriter, guitar slinger, historian, art connoisseur, bandleader and friend. It's an honor for the Superlatives and I to run the roads of the nation and share the stage with the Steve Miller Band this summer. I predict some amazing musical moments out there on the horizon."

The show is billed as "An Amazing Evening of Original American Music – Classic Rock Meets Classic Country".
