

High Winds Spark Trees to Fall on Bike Trails

by Dan Brannan, Content Director
July 18 2019 9:50 AM

GRANITE CITY - The Madison County Transit Office reported there were some trees down on Madison County Bike Trails after a Wednesday storm.

The high winds downed some tree limbs over the trail near Savannah Crossing Subdivision in Glen Carbon and trees were also reported down at Collinsville Avenue and the Glen Carbon Fire House. The Madison County Transit Office said personnel would be out on the bike trails removing the downed trees and searching for others Thursday morning.

