Stumpf, Colbert Are Overall Winners Of Wood River Police Department Foot Pursuit 5K Race

By COLIN FEENEY

WOOD RIVER – Wood River's Cree Stumpf and Edwardsville's Tanya Colbert were the overall winners of the Wood River Police Department's Foot Pursuit 5K race held on Saturday at Belk Park in Wood River.

The race and festival was a fundraiser for a Fallen Officers Memorial that will be erected in front of the Wood River police headquarters on 500 Madison Avenue. The memorial will honor the only two Wood River officers and other officers from the entire St. Louis area who were killed in the line of duty.

In addition to the race, a festival was held, with music, games and food, and an electronic police car was also raffled off, with all proceeds from the race and festival going to the construction of the memorial.

Stumpf won the men's division of the race with a time of 18:12, finishing ahead of Jonny Rynerson of Alton, with a time of 20:28. Simon McClaine of Alton finished third with a time of 21:41, Mark Scandrett of Godfrey came in fourth at 22:01, and Tim Patridge of Alton was fifth with a time of 22:07.

In the women's division, Colbert won with a time of 21:08, with Angela Reckelhoff-Mueller of Troy coming in second at 21:27.
