EDWARDSVILLE - Approximately 100 artists from local talents to as far away as Oregon and New York will be spotlighted at the Sixth Annual Edwardsville Art Fair Sept. 27, 28, and 29, in Edwardsville City Park.

"Each year the Edwardsville Arts Center presents one of the community's most exciting cultural events with tons of variety to see and purchase," Edwardsville Arts Center Executive Director Melissa McDonough-Borden Executive said. "The fantastic artists are the main attraction, but they aren't the only thing to be seen. Local restaurants will be on-site with a selection of delicious snacks and meals for guests."

McDonough-Borden said local music and dance groups will also be performing on the main stage for daily entertainment.

"The main tent offers free art projects for children both Saturday and Sunday to create and take; offering a culturally rich experience for all," she said.

"Presented by the Edwardsville Arts Center, and sponsored by The City of Edwardsville, this event is one of the regions grandest events for all to experience the joys of the arts," McDonough-Borden said.
