

JPRD Trip for Teens

December 11 2013 10:33 AM

When school is out for holiday break, the teens need something fun to do! Jerseyville Parks & Recreation Department (JPRD) is inviting teens to travel to Hidden Valley's Polar Plunge for a private party on Thursday, January 2! The group will tube down the 1200 foot long slopes for three hours. This trip is for all resident and non-resident 5th-9th graders. Concessions will be available, but travelers are encouraged to bring a sack lunch. The bus will leave the Susnig Center parking lot at 11am and will return at approximately 6:00pm. Guests are asked to arrive at the Susnig Center no later than 10:45am for an on time departure. The cost is $60 per teen and includes bus transportation, tubing, hot cocoa and chaperones. A minimum of 40 participants are needed for the trip and the registration deadline is Monday, December 16. Save the Date: there will be a Mandatory Parent/Teen Meeting on Monday, December 30 at 7pm at the Susnig Center.
