BREESE CENTRAL PAWS SHOOTOUT

CIVIC MEMORIAL 53, BREESE CENTRAL 39: Tori Standefer led CM with a career-high 18 points as the Eagles won the final game over the host Cougars in CM's first game after the sudden resignation of head coach Jonathan Denney and lead assistant coach Julianne Green earlier in the day.

Assistant coaches Jeff Ochs, Jeff Durbin and Adam Miller, along with assistants McKenzie Satterfield and Megan Trost, will become the caretaker coaches for the program for at least the rest of the season. Ochs will be the interim head coach, with Durbin and Miller his assistants.

The Eagles jumped to a 17-7 lead at the end of the first quarter, held a 26-17 lead at the half, and extended the lead to 40-23 after three quarters in going on to the win.

CM is now 15-2 on the season, while Central falls to 8-5.

NASHVILLE 30, PIASA SOUTHWESTERN 29 (OT): Rylee Smith led Southwestern with 12 points as the Piasa Birds fell in overtime to Nashville in the next-to-last game of the shootout.

Southwestern took a 13-0 lead after one quarter, but saw it cut to 18-11 at halftime. The Birds still lead 23-18 after three periods, but the Hornets fought back to tie the game 27-27 after regulation, then outscored Southwestern 3-2 in the extra period to win.

Nashville is now 14-4, while the Birds fall to 10-6.

GREENVILLE 57, JERSEY 29: Lauren Brown was Jersey's high scorer with seven points, while both Clare Breden and Abby Manns had six points each in the Panthers' loss to Greenville in the second annual Breese Central PAWS shootout.

It was all Comets in the game, as Greenville led after each quarter 16-6, 32-12 and 44-17.

Megan Hallemann led Greenville with 21 points, with Natalie Iberg scoring 14 points and Hannah Simpson adding 12.

The Comets are now 11-5, while the Panthers fall to 13-4.

REGULAR SEASON

BOYS BASKETBALL

SPARTA 50, VALMEYER 46: Jacob Rowold was the only Valmeyer player in double figures with 12 points, while Riley McCarthy had nine points and Henry Weber added seven as the Pirates lost at Sparta.

Valmeyer took an 11-10 lead after the first quarter, but the Bulldogs went into the locker room at halftime leading 24-19. Sparta extended its lead to 39-32 at the end of the third quarter, but the Pirates made it close in the fourth, outscoring Sparta 14-11, but the Bulldogs held on to win.

Sparta goes to 7-4 on the year, while Valmeyer drops to 7-7.

CARBONDALE 51, GRANITE CITY 49: Azaria Moore led Granite with 25 points, Kaylyn Wylie had 17 points, and Erica Hurst had five points as the Warriors narrowly lost at home to Carbondale.

The Terriers took the lead at 10-6 at the end of the first quarter, but Granite rallied to take a 16-11 lead at halftime, but Carbondale took the advantage back after three quarters, making the score 28-27, then outscored the Warriors 23-22 to take the two-point win.

The Terriers are now 3-7, while the Warriors go to 3-10.
