SATURDAY-SUNDAY, JANUARY 11-12 SPORTS ROUNDUP

BOYS BASKETBALL

REGULAR SEASON

EAST ALTON-WOOD RIVER 58, WATERLOO 48: Jake Wells led EAWR with 18 points, Ryan Dawson had 17 and Spencer Slayden hit for nine as the Oilers broke a losing streak in winning at Memorial Gym over Waterloo.

The Oilers led after the first quarter 16-7, extended the lead to 33-17 at halftime, saw it cut to 44-34 after three quarters, and held the Bulldogs to a 14-14 draw in the final quarter to get the win.

Jake Wade led Waterloo with 13 points, and both Austin Balabas and Ty Lenhardt scored 12 points each.

EAWR is now 5-12, while the Bulldogs dropped to 4-11.

ROXANA 65, FATHER MCGIVNEY CATHOLIC 36: Jacob Golenor led Roxana with 18 points, Parris White had 13 points, Braeden Wells scored 12 points and Gavin Huffman added 10 in the Shells' win at McGivney.

Roxana led all the way through, with quarter scores being 15-9, 37-25 and 59-33.

The Shells are now 11-6, while the Griffins fell to 3-14.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

CALVARY LUTHERAN TOURNAMENT IN JEFFERSON CITY, MO.

METRO-EAST LUTHERAN 54. VIENNA, MO. 24: At a tournament at Calvary Lutheran in Jefferson City, Mo., Destiny Williams led the Knights with 17 points at Metro-East won in the consolation bracket of the tournament.

Williams hit on a pair of threes in the game, while Jennifer Lehner had six rebounds.

A game against Laquey, Mo., scheduled later in the day, was cancelled due to the rainy and snowy weather that passed through the area on Saturday evening.

The Knights are now 3-9 on the season.

REGULAR SEASON

CARLINVILLE 48, STAUNTON 38: Haris Legendre led Staunton with 12 points, while Analise Best scored nine points and Hollie Bekeske added seven as the Bulldogs lost at home to Carlinville in a South Central Conference matchup.

Staunton led at halftime 20-16, but the Cavaliers outscored the Bulldogs 32-18 in the second half to take the win.

Gracie Reels led Carlinville with 17 points, while Jill Stayton hit for 15 points and Sarah DeNeve chipped in with eight points.

The Cavvies are now 16-3, while Staunton falls to 9-9.

TRIAD 49, COLUMBIA 38: Alyssa Powell led Triad with 11 points, while Sydney Hartoin scored nine points and Ella Manso added eight in the Knights' win at Rich Mason Gym over Columbia.

Triad led the entire way, holding advantages of 11-8, 23-15 and 30-27 in going on to the win.

The Knights improved to 7-11, while the Eagles are now 8-11.

PIASA SOUTHWESTERN 51, VANDALIA 35: Korrie Hopkins and Annie Gallaher led Southwestern with 16 points each, while Rylee Smith had 10 as the Piasa Birds won a South Central Conference game at home.

Southwestern led after the first quarter 15-4 and extended it to 27-14 at the half, thanks to Hopkins' buzzer-beating three from distance to end the first half.

Lanee McNary led the Vandals with 18 points, while Madysin Hill added 13.

The Birds are now 13-6, while Vandalia goes to 3-14.
