MSCHA HOCKEY

TIGERS WIN SUBURBAN DIVISION, SEEDED NINTH IN BLUES

CHALLENGE CUP: The Edwardsville hockey team won the Suburban Division on Saturday night when Rockwood Summit, who trailed the Tigers by a point in the standings and needing a win to take the division title, lost to Lindberg on Saturday night 5-2, clinching the Tigers' first ever championship of any kind in their four-year history in the MSCHA.

Edwardsville was seeded ninth in the 12-team field for the St. Louis Blues High School Challenge Cup playoffs, which will be getting underway this coming week. CBC was awarded the top seed, with St. John Vianney Catholic seeded second, defending champion St. Louis U. High third and Rockwood Marquette fourth in the playoff seedings released Sunday night.

Chaminade College Prep got the fifth seed, followed by Kirkwood, DeSmet Jesuit, Lafayette, the Tigers, Priory Catholic, Francis Howell of St. Charles County, and Summit.

Oakville is the top seed for the Doug Wickenheiser Memorial Cup, named for the late St. Louis Blues player best known for his overtime goal in the Monday Night Miracle, a dramatic 6-5 come-from-behind win in overtime over the Calgary Flames in the sixth game of the 1986 Campbell Conference Final. Lindberg is the second seeded team in the Wickenheiser Cup playoffs, followed by St. Charles Duchesne Catholic, Ft. Zumwalt East, Westminster Christian, Imperial Seckman, Ladue, John Burroughs, Fox High of Arnold, Mo., Parkway West, Mary Institute-Country Day, Wentzville Holt, Clayton, Francis Howell Central, Ft. Zumwalt West and Wentzville Timberland.

The Founders Cup playoffs top seed went to Eureka, followed by Parkway South, Lutheran South, Cedar Hill Northwest, Webster Groves, Francis Howell North, Ft. Zumwalt South and St. Mary's.

The group stage for the Blues Challenge Cup and Wickenheiser Cup will begin this coming week, with groupings, pairings and schedules to be announced, along with the pairings and schedules for the Founders Cup. The semifinals of the Challenge and Wickenheiser Cups are set for Feb. 21-22 and Feb. 28-29 at the Centene Ice Center in Maryland Heights, Mo., and the finals of both will be held at Enterprise Center on Mar. 11.
