GIRLS BASKETBALL

46TH ANNUAL CARROLLTON LADY HAWK INVITATIONAL

SEMIFINALS

JERSEY 46, FATHER MCGIVNEY CATHOLIC 36: In a quarterfinal match of the Carrollton Lady Hawk Invitational, Clare Breden led Jersey with 19 points, Abby Manns had 12 points and Chloe White added six as the Panthers used a 9-0 third-quarter run to help defeat McGivney and advance to the final.

Jersey led at the end of each quarter, with scores of 11-8, 20-16 and 33-25 in advancing on to the championship game.

Madison Webb led the Griffins with 15 points, with both Mariah Starnes and Charlize Luehmann adding five points on the night.

The Panthers are now 19-5, while the Griffins drop to 21-5.

JACKSONVILLE ROUTT CATHOLIC 48, MARQUETTE CATHOLIC 40: In the second semifinal, Adrenna Snipes led Marquette with 15 points, Jillian Nelson scored 13 points and Kamryn Fandrey added seven, as the Explorers went on a 10-0 run to come within 42-40 with 2:22 left in regulation, but Routt held on to defeat Marquette and advance to the final against Jersey.

The Rockets led at the end of the first quarter 14-7, at halftime 30-18 and 34-23 after three quarters before the Explorers went on their fourth-quarter run. A Bella McCarney basket and four free throws in the last seconds sealed the win for Routt.

McCartney led the way for the Rockets with 20 points, while Lacey Schierl had eight points and Sydney Walker seven.

Routt is now 23-2 and will go against the Panthers in the final, while the Marquette goes to 21-6 and will meet the Griffins in the third-place game.

In a consolation bracket game, Gateway Legacy Christian of Granite City defeated Mascoutah 51-34.

REGULAR SEASON

ORCHARD FARM, MO. 50, BRUSSELS 18: Alyssa Kress led Brussels with 12 points, Emma Clark added four points and Tessa Clark two in the Raiders' loss at Orchard Farm, Mo.
