

Lewis and Clark Kicks Off Black History Month

February 4 2020 1:00 AM

GODFREY - Veteran St. Louis broadcaster Rene Knott visited with a group of Lewis and Clark Community College students Feb. 3 to discuss the changing face of mass communications in 2020.

Knott used his experiences to demonstrate what it takes to find success as a broadcast journalist. The event was the first of many that will be held at Lewis and Clark Community College during Black History Month.

For a full list of L&C events commemorating Black History Month, visit https://www.lc.edu/News_Story/Diversity-BlackHistoryMonth2020-events/.