Saint Louis Closet Co. is announcing that it has selected Down Syndrome Association of Greater St. Louis (DSAGSL) for its next giveback effort - Closets for a Cause. At the end of March, a percentage of gross sales will be donated to DSAGSL.

Last month, Saint Louis Closet Co. announced the beginning of this new effort in order to prioritize giving back to local charities. Each month, a percentage of gross sales will be donated to a selected charity. Stray Rescue of St. Louis was the first recipient of this giveback effort.

"We are so excited to be partnering with Saint Louis Closet Co. this year!" said Amber McWilliams, DSAGSL's director of special events. "Mission sponsors, like Saint Louis Closet Co., help the Down Syndrome Association of Greater St. Louis continue to offer and expand the life-changing programs and resources we offer to individuals with Down syndrome and their families every step of the way!"

This charity's mission is to benefit the lives of people with Down syndrome and their families through individual and family support, education, public awareness, and advocacy. DSAGSL is dedicated to supporting nearly 2,000 individuals throughout their lives. They plan for all of the funds raised to be used on the life-changing programs and resources they provide. A few programs include:

- Small Steps – for receiving extra therapies and interventions.
- Rock 21 – for learning how to form a band.
- Pop Up Snack Shop – for learning how to run a small business.
