

Make the Most of Your Summer During SIUE's Summer Session

by Megan Wieser
March 23 2020 3:44 PM

EDWARDSVILLE - Southern Illinois University Edwardsville summer session 2020 offers a quality education that features flexibility and convenience. SIUE offers nearly 1,000 summer classes in a variety of formats.

Register now at siue.edu/summer/apply-or-register.

A variety of introductory general education and required upper-division classes are offered during summer session. Classes begin Monday, May 11.

“SIUE’s summer session courses reflect the same quality and excellent instruction our students expect,” said Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs Denise Cobb, PhD. “Summer session provides an important opportunity for students to advance toward graduation.”

Students don’t have to go far to mix sun and activity with their academic schedule, as SIUE’s campus is abuzz throughout the summer. The University’s beautiful campus features The Gardens at SIUE, sand volleyball courts, a disk golf course, Cougar Lake, the Edwardsville/Glen Carbon Community Pool and miles of scenic bike trails.

Additionally, SIUE offers a variety of active and engaging academic, sports, music and theater camps for youth of all ages. A convenient early drop-off/late pick-up option is available for certain camps. Additional information and camp details can be found at siue.edu/summer-camps.

A complete list of activities and registration details can be found at siue.edu/summer.

Southern Illinois University Edwardsville provides students with a high quality, affordable education that prepares them for successful careers and lives of purpose to shape a changing world. Built on the foundation of a broad-based liberal education, and enhanced by hands-on research and real-world experiences, the academic preparation SIUE students receive equips them to thrive in the global marketplace and make our communities better places to live. Situated on 2,660 acres of beautiful woodland atop the bluffs overlooking the natural beauty of the Mississippi River's rich bottomland and only a short drive from downtown St. Louis, the SIUE campus is home to a diverse student body of more than 13,000.