"Our one-time grants are tailored to a specific community or an emerging need and are an essential part of how United Way helps people throughout our Illinois communities," said Dawna Gilbreath, United Way of Greater St. Louis funding manager, Illinois Region. "Thanks to the generosity of our region, United Way is able to make these investments in quality organizations in order to meet these needs in our Illinois service area."

Helping people.

United Way of Greater St. Louis

United Way one-time grants are open to any nonprofit agency meeting the criteria of the specific grant, not just for United Way partner agencies. In 2013, United Way of Greater St. Louis awarded 32 organizations in the St. Louis metro region one-time community enhancement grants, totaling $248,444.

About United Way of Greater St. Louis

United Way supports more than 170 health and human service agencies located throughout a 16-county area in Missouri and Illinois. One in three people in our community receive services that strengthen families, help the elderly, keep children healthy and safe, and build stronger neighborhoods.
